Mailed to 7,500 addresses!

The Kenwood Press is directly mailed to 7,500 separate addresses in Kenwood, Glen Ellen, Oakmont and Bennett Ridge, which represent significant purchasing power for goods and services of all kinds throughout Sonoma County.

High-income homeowners!

Our market includes 7,500 households with a median annual income of $69,000.

Kenwood and Glen Ellen are unique villages situated at the northern end of Sonoma Valley, in the heart of Sonoma County's premium wine country. Perfect for wine lovers and nature enthusiasts alike, the towns are home to superb wineries and restaurants, and Sugarloaf Ridge, Jack London and Annadel state parks. The area is a destination for thousands of tourists every year and home to an affluent group of educated professional families and singles.

Kenwood and Glen Ellen (home to 3,500 residents) are vibrant, tight-knit communities. Each village has its own fire department, elementary school, a number of community organizations, and businesses.

West on Highway 12, Oakmont is an active senior community of 5,000 with strong ties to Kenwood and Glen Ellen. Located at the gateway of Sonoma Valley, Oakmont is home to two golf courses, a robust cultural activities calendar and other first-class commercial and recreational facilities.

Bennett Ridge and the nearby Sonoma Mountain Road area consist of 500 rural residences on the southeast side of Annadel State Park in the rolling hills above Bennett Valley.

The Kenwood Press is a semi-monthly community newspaper, published 22 times a year, on the 1st and the 15th of each month. Besides being mailed directly to 7,500 addresses in Kenwood, Glen Ellen, Oakmont, and Bennett Ridge, and an additional 500 copies are distributed to businesses and community centers in Kenwood, Glen Ellen, and Oakmont, Sonoma and Santa Rosa. The Kenwood Press is widely read, re-read, and shared throughout Northern Sonoma Valley, providing articles on topics of local concern, such as growth, traffic problems, environmental issues, education, and much more.
